"Through the first three quarters, the Mint generated $36.8 million in profit, representing an 85 per cent increase over the prior year. This performance was supported by strong growth in precious metals and foreign circulation, even as global trade and precious metal markets remained volatile. It demonstrates the value of a diversified business and the Mint's ability to compete and grow while delivering on its mandate for Canada," said Francis Mensah, President and CEO of the Royal Canadian Mint."
